ANSWER KEY	Included above

ANSWER KEY

1. Look and Write

Use like / likes / don't like / doesn't like + the pictured noun; a happy face → likes, an unhappy face → doesn't like. Models: 1. He likes pizza. 2. She doesn't like vegetables. 3. He likes music. 4. She likes dogs. 5. She doesn't like football. 6. He likes books. Pictures without a person (4, 6) accept he or she; check the verb form matches.

2. Complete the Sentences

Personal answers. Frames: I like... / I don't like... / My friend likes... / My friend doesn't like... / I like... because it's... / I don't like... because it's... / My family likes... / I don't like... at school. Check: 'I' takes like, 'my friend' takes likes.

3. Make Sentences (order the words)

1. I like chocolate.
2. She doesn't like dogs.
3. We like pizza.
4. He doesn't like homework.
5. They like music.
6. Do you like vegetables?

4. Ask and Answer

Personal answers. Each item: a 'Do you like...?' question + a short answer (Yes, I do. / No, I don't.). Check the question starts with Do and the verb is 'like' (no -s).

5. Write about a Friend

Personal answers using the sentence starters (My friend's name is... / He / She likes... / He / She doesn't like... / We like... together). Check third person -s on 'likes' / 'doesn't like'.

6. Write a Short Paragraph

Personal answers (5–6 sentences). Use the checklist as the mark scheme: 5–6 sentences, uses like / likes, uses don't like / doesn't like, gives a reason with 'because', capital letters and full stops.

Challenge

Students write two extra sentences using a different subject (he, she, it, we, they), e.g. My parents don't like loud music. It likes warm days.

TEACHING SUPPORT

TEACHER TIP

Almost every gap on this page turns on one decision: is the subject 'I / you / we / they' (→ like) or 'he / she / it' (→ likes)? Put that two-way choice on the board as a permanent reference and have students point to it before writing each sentence in Exercises 2 and 5.

COMMON STUDENT MISTAKES

- ✗ She like dogs.
- ✓ She doesn't like dogs. / She likes dogs.
- ✗ He don't like homework.
- ✓ He doesn't like homework.
- ✗ Do you likes vegetables?
- ✓ Do you like vegetables?
- ✗ My friend like pizza.
- ✓ My friend likes pizza.

EXTRA CLASS ACTIVITY

Likes Chain Story (8 min)

In a circle, student 1 says 'I like...'; student 2 repeats and adds a third-person sentence: 'She likes pizza and I like...'. Each student adds one, keeping like / likes correct. If someone makes an -s mistake, the chain restarts.

LEARNING FOCUS

Objective: Students will be able to write true affirmative and negative sentences about their own and other people's preferences, choosing correctly between like / likes / don't like / doesn't like, and produce a short paragraph.

Success Criteria: I can write 'I like / I don't like' sentences. I can write 'He / She likes / doesn't like' sentences with -s. I can write a short paragraph about my likes and dislikes with a reason.

Prior Knowledge: like / likes / don't like / doesn't like and Do / Does questions (from the Grammar worksheet); food, animal and hobby vocabulary.

LESSON PLAN (40–45 MINUTES)

Level: A1

Skill: Writing

Topic: Writing about preferences with like / likes / don't like / doesn't like

Exercises: 6 (1–6)

Est. Time: 40–45 minutes

MATERIALS & PREP

- Printed worksheet copies (1 per student)
- Board for the like / likes reference

- Pens or pencils

TIME	STAGE	PROCEDURE
5 min	Warm-Up	On the board write 'pizza', 'spiders', 'football', 'homework'. Model a reaction sentence for two of them with a face and a gesture: 'I like pizza.' / 'I don't like spiders.' Ask three students for one 'I like' and one 'I don't like' sentence and write them up – these are the models for Exercise 2.
11 min	Presentation (I Do)	Draw the two-column reference: I / you / we / they + like / don't like ; he / she / it + likes / doesn't like . State the rule: only he / she / it add -s, so the negative uses 'doesn't' (already the -s form) + like with no extra -s. Model Exercise 1 picture 1 aloud: 'A boy, happy face, pizza → He likes pizza.' Then model a 'doesn't like' picture. Model Exercise 3 item 1: read the jumbled words, find the subject, put like / likes after it, add a capital and a full stop → 'I like chocolate.' Show how the paragraph checklist in Exercise 6 becomes a self-marking tool: read your paragraph and tick each box.
10 min	Guided Practice (We Do)	Class completes Exercise 1 together, saying each sentence before writing and checking the face (happy / unhappy) against like / doesn't like. Do Exercise 3 items 1–2 as a class.
10 min	Independent Practice (You Do)	Students complete Exercise 3 (order the words), then Exercise 2 (own ideas) and Exercise 4 (questions + short answers) alone. Circulate; correct any 'I likes' / 'She like' by pointing to the two-column board.
6 min	Assessment	Students write Exercise 5 (about a friend) and self-check against the like / likes reference; collect for marking. Exit Ticket done individually.
5 min	Closure	Students write the first two sentences of the Exercise 6 paragraph and read them to a partner, who checks like vs. likes and the full stops.

FOLLOW-UP / HOMEWORK IDEA

Homework: finish the Exercise 6 paragraph (5–6 sentences with one 'because' reason), then underline every 'like' and 'likes'.

ANTICIPATED PROBLEMS & SOLUTIONS

Problem: Students write 'I likes' or 'we likes', over-applying the -s, or 'She like' / 'He don't like', dropping it.

Solution: Keep the two-column board visible all lesson; before Exercises 2 and 5 students point to their subject's column and say 'like' or 'likes' aloud.

Problem: Students write questions in Exercise 4 with -s ('Do you likes...?').

Solution: Remind them the question already has 'Do' – the main verb stays 'like'; drill two examples chorally.

FOR EXTRA SUPPORT

Give weaker students Exercises 2 and 5 with the verb already chosen (I like _____. / My friend likes _____.) so they only supply the noun.

FOR AN EXTRA CHALLENGE

Students rewrite three of their sentences about a different person, changing 'I' to 'he' or 'she' and fixing the verb.

EXTENSION & FAST-FINISHER IDEAS

- Write one sentence about something your whole class likes.

- Turn two Exercise 1 sentences into 'Do you like...?' questions.

LANGUAGE FOCUS & BOARD NOTES

Grammar: like / likes / don't like / doesn't like; Do you like...? + short answers; 'because' for reasons.

Board: I like pizza. • She likes pizza. • He doesn't like homework. • Do you like dogs? Yes, I do.

EXIT TICKET — QUICK CHECK

1. Order the words: doesn't like / she / dogs → She doesn't like dogs.
2. Fix: My friend like pizza. → My friend likes pizza.
3. Write one true 'I don't like' sentence with a reason. → personal answer
