TEACHING SUPPORT

TEACHER TIP

The rule is the mirror of the comparative: short adjective → the + -est (the tallest); long adjective → the most + adjective (the most delicious); irregular → the best / the worst. The word students forget is 'the' – underline it on every board example.

EXTRA CLASS ACTIVITY

Superlative Bingo (8 min)

Students draw a 3x3 grid and write nine adjectives. The teacher calls topics ('a river', 'a building', 'a person you know'); students write a true superlative sentence for any matching square. First to a full row reads their three sentences for a form check.

LEARNING FOCUS

Objective: Students will be able to form and use superlative adjectives (the ...-est, the most ..., the best / the worst) in controlled sentences and free writing, and tell them apart from comparatives.

Success Criteria: I can make the superlative of a short adjective (tall → the tallest). I can make the superlative of a long adjective (the most expensive). I can use the best and the worst. I never forget 'the'.

Prior Knowledge: Comparative adjectives; -est / -iest spelling and doubling (hot → hottest); adjectives for size, quality and description.

LESSON PLAN (40–45 MINUTES)

Level: A1

Skill: Practice (Grammar + Writing)

Topic: Superlative adjectives: the ...-est / the most ..., irregular forms

Exercises: 6 (1–6)

Est. Time: 40–45 minutes

MATERIALS & PREP

- Printed worksheet copies (1 per student)
- Board for short / long / irregular superlatives

- Pens or pencils

TIME	STAGE	PROCEDURE
5 min	Warm-Up	Name three things: a mouse, a dog, an elephant. Ask 'Which is the biggest?' → 'The elephant is the biggest.' Write it and underline 'the' and '-est'; note we are comparing three, not two.
11 min	Presentation (I Do)	Board the forms next to the comparative so the pattern is visible. Short: tall → taller → the tallest ; big → the biggest (double letter); happy → the happiest; easy → the easiest. Long: expensive → the most expensive ; interesting → the most interesting. Irregular: good → the best, bad → the worst. State the rule: a superlative compares three or more and always starts with the . Contrast with the comparative (bigger than): the superlative has 'the' and no 'than'. Model Exercise 2 items 1, 8 and 9 aloud, saying short / long / irregular each time.
10 min	Guided Practice (We Do)	Class does Exercise 2 items 1–4 together, labelling short / long and watching for 'than'. Do Exercise 4 item 1 as a class (order the words, add capital and full stop).
10 min	Independent Practice (You Do)	Students complete Exercises 2, 3 and 4 alone, then compare Exercise 4 in pairs.
6 min	Assessment	Review Exercise 2 on the board: for each item a student gives the form and says short / long / irregular. Students complete the Exit Ticket individually.
5 min	Closure	Students write two sentences from Exercise 5 and read one to a partner, who checks 'the' and the -est / most choice.

FOLLOW-UP / HOMEWORK IDEA

Homework: write 6 true superlative sentences about your family, your town and your country, using at least one long adjective and one irregular (the best / the worst).

ANTICIPATED PROBLEMS & SOLUTIONS

Problem: Students write 'the most tall' / 'the beautifulest', mixing the short and long patterns.

Solution: Keep short / long on the board; students say the syllable count aloud before choosing -est or 'the most'.

Problem: Students forget 'the' before the superlative ('It is highest mountain').

Solution: Underline 'the' on every board example; a superlative sentence is not complete without it.

FOR EXTRA SUPPORT

Give weaker students a comparative → superlative conversion card for 8 adjectives, so Exercise 2 becomes a conversion task.

FOR AN EXTRA CHALLENGE

Students rewrite three Exercise 2 sentences as comparatives with 'than', changing the meaning to compare two things.

LANGUAGE FOCUS & BOARD NOTES

Grammar: the + short adj + -est; the most + long adj; the best / the worst; 'than' → comparative.

Board: the tallest building • the most expensive phone • the best season • easier than (comparative)

EXIT TICKET — QUICK CHECK

1. Superlative: big → the biggest
2. Superlative: interesting → the most interesting
3. This exercise is the ____ (easy) I have ever done. → easiest
