SKILL	Writing
TOPIC	Writing superlative sentences (the ...-est / the most ...)
EXERCISES	6 (A–F)
EST. TIME	40–45 minutes
ANSWER KEY	Included above

ANSWER KEY

A. Look and Write Sentences

Personal answers – one superlative sentence per picture. Models: 1 (mountain, high) It is the highest mountain. 2 (cheetah, fast) The cheetah is the fastest animal. 3 (tower, tall) It is the tallest building. 4 (beach, beautiful) It is the most beautiful beach. 5 (money, expensive) It is the most expensive thing. 6 (desert, hot) It is the hottest place. Check the + -est for short adjectives and the most + adjective for long ones.

B. Compare and Write (your own ideas)

Personal answers – students complete each sentence with a true idea, keeping the superlative: 1 the most hard-working, 2 the funniest, 3 the most famous, 4 the most important, 5 (season) + the ...-est/most, 6 the most delicious, 7 the ...-est / most ..., 8 the best / worst ... because.... Check the form of the superlative in each.

C. Write about the Pictures

Personal answers (3–4 sentences each about London, Phuket, Moscow) using superlative adjectives. Check 'the' before every superlative.

D. Complete the Text (A Special Place)

- most beautiful
- friendliest
- cooler (this gap is a comparative – the sentence has 'than'; use it to contrast comparative vs. superlative)
- the best
- most interesting

E. Write a Short Paragraph

Personal answers (6–8 sentences on one topic: best holiday / most interesting person / best school / most exciting sport / most delicious meal / most beautiful place). Every superlative needs 'the'.

F. Your Opinion

Personal answers – 5 full-sentence answers with a reason (best movie / most important person / most useful invention / worst thing about your city / most exciting plan). Check the superlative form and 'the'.

Challenge

One more sentence about a dream destination using at least two superlative adjectives.

TEACHING SUPPORT

TEACHER TIP

The rule is the mirror of the comparative: short adjective → the + -est (the tallest); long adjective → the most + adjective (the most beautiful); irregular → the best / the worst. The word students forget is 'the' – underline it on every board example.

COMMON STUDENT MISTAKES

- X It is highest mountain in the world.
- ✓ It is the highest mountain in the world.
- X She is the most tall in my family.
- ✓ She is the tallest in my family.
- X It was the more delicious pizza.
- ✓ It was the most delicious pizza.
- X July is the hotter month of the year.
- ✓ July is the hottest month of the year.

EXTRA CLASS ACTIVITY

The Most... in the Class (8 min)

Students write 4 true superlative sentences about the class or the school ('The library is the quietest room.'). In groups they read them out; the group votes true or false and fixes any wrong superlative forms.

LEARNING FOCUS

Objective: Students will be able to write superlative sentences about people, places and things, using the ...-est for short adjectives, the most ... for long ones, and the best / the worst.

Success Criteria: I can write 'the' + adjective + -est for short adjectives. I can write 'the most' + adjective for long ones. I can use the best and the worst. I never forget 'the'.

Prior Knowledge: Comparative adjectives (-er than / more ... than); -est and -iest spelling; adjectives for describing places and people.

LESSON PLAN (40–45 MINUTES)

Level: A1

Skill: Writing

Topic: Writing superlative sentences (the ...-est / the most ...)

Exercises: 6 (A–F)

Est. Time: 40–45 minutes

MATERIALS & PREP

- Printed worksheet copies (1 per student)
- Board for short / long / irregular superlatives

- Pens or pencils

TIME	STAGE	PROCEDURE
5 min	Warm-Up	Ask 'Who is tall in this class? Who is the tallest?' Push for the full form on the board: 'Ana is the tallest student in the class.' Underline 'the' and '-est'.
11 min	Presentation (I Do)	Board three types, next to the comparative form so students see the pattern. Short: comparative bigger → superlative the biggest ; fast→the fastest; happy→the happiest; hot→the hottest (double letter). Long: more expensive → the most expensive ; more beautiful → the most beautiful. Irregular: good→the best, bad→the worst. State the rule: a superlative compares three or more, and always starts with the . Model Exercise A picture 1: 'mountain, high → It is the highest mountain.' Then a long one: 'beach, beautiful → It is the most beautiful beach.' Model the Exercise D text gap 1 ('one of the ____ (beautiful) cities' → 'the most beautiful') and point out gap 3 is actually a comparative because of the word 'than'.
10 min	Guided Practice (We Do)	Class does Exercise A pictures 1–3 together, labelling each adjective short / long first. Do Exercise D gaps 1–2 as a class.
10 min	Independent Practice (You Do)	Students finish Exercise D and complete Exercise B (own ideas) alone; then begin Exercise F.
6 min	Assessment	Review Exercise D on the board: for each gap a student gives the form and the reason (short / long / irregular / 'than' = comparative). Students complete the Exit Ticket individually.
5 min	Closure	Students write two answers from Exercise F and read one to a partner, who checks 'the' + the superlative form.

FOLLOW-UP / HOMEWORK IDEA

Homework: choose a topic and write the Exercise E paragraph (6–8 sentences), then underline every superlative and check it has 'the'.

ANTICIPATED PROBLEMS & SOLUTIONS

Problem: Students drop 'the' ('It is highest mountain') or use 'the most' with short adjectives ('the most tall').

Solution: Underline 'the' on every board example; short adjective → -est only, never 'most'.

Problem: Students treat the Exercise D 'cooler than' gap as a superlative.

Solution: Point to the word 'than' in the sentence – 'than' always means a comparative, so the answer is 'cooler', not 'the coolest'.

FOR EXTRA SUPPORT

Give weaker students a two-column card (comparative → superlative) for 8 common adjectives, so they can convert rather than build from scratch.

FOR AN EXTRA CHALLENGE

Students rewrite three Exercise B sentences as comparatives with 'than', noticing how the form changes.

LANGUAGE FOCUS & BOARD NOTES

Grammar: the + short adj + -est; the most + long adj; the best / the worst; 'than' → comparative, not superlative.

Board: the tallest building • the most beautiful beach • the best vacation ever • cooler than (comparative)

EXIT TICKET — QUICK CHECK

- Write: mountain (high) → It is the highest mountain.
- Choose: It was the (most delicious / most delicioust) meal. → the most delicious
- The food is ____ (good) → the best
