2. She doesn't like bananas.
3. It plays in the garden.
4. He watches TV after dinner.
5. She studies English every day.
6. It carries a small box.

F. Write about a person • Challenge

Personal answers. F: any true sentence with a correct third person verb (My friend plays basketball. My teacher speaks three languages.) – check -s / -es / -ies and base verb after doesn't. Challenge: 3 true + 1 false third person sentences; a partner finds the false one.

TEACHING SUPPORT

TEACHER TIP

The 'COMMON MISTAKE' note in the grammar box (he doesn't play, not he doesn't plays) is the rule students break most in Exercises C–E. Say it aloud once before each of those exercises: 'does / doesn't already has the -s, so the main verb has none.'

COMMON STUDENT MISTAKES

- ✗ She go to school by bus.
- ✓ She goes to school by bus.
- ✗ He study English every day.
- ✓ He studies English every day.
- ✗ It doesn't rains a lot.
- ✓ It doesn't rain a lot.
- ✗ Does she likes chocolate?
- ✓ Does she like chocolate?

EXTRA CLASS ACTIVITY

Third Person Chain (8 min)

Student 1 says an affirmative sentence about a classmate ('Ana likes music.'). Student 2 must make it negative ('Ana doesn't like rock.') and Student 3 turns it into a question ('Does Ana like pop?'). Rotate around the room, changing the verb each round.

LEARNING FOCUS

Objective: Students will be able to form the present simple third person singular of regular and common irregular verbs (-s, -es, -ies), and use the base verb after does / doesn't in questions and negatives.

Success Criteria: I can add -s, -es or -ies to a verb for he / she / it. I can write a negative with doesn't + base verb. I can write a question with Does + subject + base verb.

Prior Knowledge: Present simple affirmative with I / you / we / they, and the subject pronouns he / she / it.

LESSON PLAN (40–45 MINUTES)

Level: A1

Skill: Grammar

Topic: Present simple: third person singular (-s / -es / -ies, irregular)

Exercises: 6 (A–F)

Est. Time: 40–45 minutes

MATERIALS & PREP

- Printed worksheet copies (1 per student)
- Pens or pencils
- Board for the spelling rules

TIME	STAGE	PROCEDURE
5 min	Warm-Up	Say 'I get up at seven.', then point to a student: 'He gets up at seven.' Ask what changed. Write both on the board and underline the -s.
9 min	Presentation (I Do)	Teach the three spelling rules on the board: (1) most verbs add -s (play→plays); (2) -ch/-sh/-ss/-x/-o add -es (watch→watches, go→goes); (3) consonant + y → -ies (study→studies). Then write 'He doesn't play.' and 'Does he play?' and explain that does / doesn't carries the -s, so the main verb stays in the base form ('He doesn't plays' is wrong).
10 min	Guided Practice (We Do)	Do Exercise A items 1–4 together, naming the spelling rule each time; students finish A alone and compare in pairs. Do B items 1–2 as a class.
10 min	Independent Practice (You Do)	Students complete Exercises B, C and D alone. Remind them: base verb after doesn't / Does.
6 min	Assessment	Review Exercise E on the board, students naming the rule that was broken; then the Exit Ticket individually.
5 min	Closure	Students write two sentences in Exercise F about a real person and read one to a partner, who checks the verb ending.

FOLLOW-UP / HOMEWORK IDEA

Homework: write six sentences about a family member's daily routine using he / she, then rewrite two of them as negatives and two as Does questions.

ANTICIPATED PROBLEMS & SOLUTIONS

Problem: Students add -s to the main verb after does / doesn't ('Does he plays?', 'She doesn't likes').

Solution: Before Exercises C and D, drill 3 examples chorally, covering the -s on the board to show does / doesn't already carries it.

Problem: Students forget the spelling change for -o and consonant + y verbs ('gos', 'studys', 'flys').

Solution: Keep the three-rule chart on the board and point to rule 2 or 3 whenever one of those verbs appears.

FOR EXTRA SUPPORT

Give weaker students a printed mini-chart of the three spelling rules with two example verbs each, to keep on their desk during Exercises A–E.

FOR AN EXTRA CHALLENGE

Students write a short 5-sentence description of a famous person's routine, using at least one -es verb and one -ies verb, then underline every third person verb.

EXTENSION & FAST-FINISHER IDEAS

- Write one more sentence using an irregular verb (have → has).
- Explain in your own words why we write 'studies' and not 'studys'.

LANGUAGE FOCUS & BOARD NOTES

Grammar: present simple third person singular – add -s / -es / -ies; does / doesn't + base verb for questions and negatives.

Skills: Reading (grammar box), Writing (Ex. A–F), Speaking (Warm-Up + Closure).

Board: play → plays • go → goes • study → studies • He doesn't play. • Does he play?

EXIT TICKET — QUICK CHECK

1. Add the ending: she (watch) TV. → watches
2. Make it negative: He goes to the gym. → He doesn't go to the gym.
3. Make it a question: It rains a lot. → Does it rain a lot?
